Jesus Loves the Little Children!

At Eastside, we love our volunteers. In fact, we couldn't do what we do without them. So, we want to show you how much we appreciate your efforts this year. In 2019, we were in our community and showing the love of Jesus more than any other time in the past five years. Therefore, on Saturday, November 9, starting at 6 p.m., we are hosting a catered supper at Rick's BBQ for anyone who volunteered in any of our ministries here at Eastside in 2019 (along with your spouses and kids). If you volunteered your time and energy to help us do ministry in 2019, we want you at that supper! It's a gift of appreciation from the Eastside leadership to you. We know you don't do it for any earthly rewards, but we want you to know that you're noticed and appreciated. So, sign up on the bulletin board if you can attend. You have until November 3 to sign up.

Do you think marriage is about finding "The One"? This is a pretty popular notion today. It finds its way into all sorts of books, movies, and songs. So, it must be true. Right?

COMMUNION: David Adamson

#300 When I Survey the Wondrous Cross
Bread Pass vs 1-2; Cup Pass vs 3-4

But what do we mean by "The One"? In a study conducted some years ago, single men claimed that they were waiting to get married until they found "the perfect soul mate" (Whitehead and Popenoe, "Why Men Won't Commit"). The perfect soul mate would essentially be a perfect match for them, the one who completed them, the one who was already so perfectly suited for them that this person would never make them change or compromise. So, "The One" is that person who is already so formed as to fit neatly and snugly into your life, as is.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Tom Woodason

SCRIPTURE READER: Nick Stott
Ephesians 5:22-33

But here's a truth that almost every married person will tell you if they've been married for several years. If you're looking for that perfect match who won't require you to change or radically mature into someone different than you are now, you might as well be searching for unicorns. After all, that person is just as mythical as a flying horse with a horn growing out of its forehead. In fact, the whole idea of "The One" who completes you grew out of Greek myth. In Plato's Symposium, a speaker named Aristophanes described how Zeus cut up primal man, who had double the limbs and organs he does now, into pieces. Ever since, individuals have felt an intense yearning for their other halves, which happens to be another person. So, if you think there's a "One" who completes you smoothly and perfectly, you've inherited the idea from ancient paganism.

But what does the Bible say one should look for in a marriage partner? And what should you expect from that marriage? What is the goal that both you and your partner should have for a Christian marriage? It may not be what you think. This is what we're talking about today.
