There is an attended nursery for ages 6 months to 36 months during worship.

"When darkness veils his lovely face, I rest on his unchanging grace..." These are the words of a frequently sung Christian hymn that speak of confidence in the midst of despair. Christianity, and the Bible generally, is littered with spiritual resources for grappling with the heavy clouds of darkness that inevitably settle over our lives. Life with God does not exempt anyone from suffering and adversity. If this were so, God would have to exempt us from life! Jesus himself taught his followers, "In the world you will have tribulation" (John 16:33).

Admittedly, Christianity has sometimes been presented as if God will solve your problems and preserve you from hardship so long as you have faith in Him. This is simply untrue. In the words of that great piece of moviemaking (sarcasm), The Princess Bride, "Life is pain, Highness. Anyone who says differently is selling something." But what do you do when the darkness doesn't lift? How do you make sense of a God who claims for himself goodness, love, mercy, and faithfulness while he lets those he loves endure prolonged periods of hurt and sorrow?

This is a question that never goes away, which is why this will be the subject of today's message. I've chosen it specifically as a message to our friends, family, and neighbors who are with us today. Welcome! We're glad you're here and that you took the time to be our guests on this first Friends, Family, & Neighbor Day of 2019. Please hang out with us afterward during lunch to give us a chance to know you better!
