Our Mission:

DEVELOP COMPLETELY COMMITTED FOLLOWERS

Be the Sermon Sunday 2019

Be the Sermon Sunday is an event that intends to send us into our community as a church for various acts of kindness, love, and generosity. Our target date, barring any serious obstacles, will be May 5. The day will look something like this: after worship, all participating church members will immediately divide into teams and head into our community with specific discipleship projects to complete. Here's the plan:

- Sign up on the posted sign-up sheets
- Wear "Be the Sermon" T-shirt and "work clothes" to the worship service on Be the Sermon Sunday
- At the conclusion of the worship service, we will break up into teams and each team will be given a discipleship project to complete (estimated time of completion: 1–2 hours)
- Participating team members will be given sack lunches to take with them.
- As the projects are completed, team members are free to go home.

IGNITE

IGNITE will NOT meet tonight due to the Easter Holiday.

Sermon Notes

What do the angels tell the women to do? _____

What does “remembering” do for the women disciples (and the men, according to John’s Gospel)? _____

What are some things that we should specifically remember about the resurrection? _____

Where do remembrance and understanding of the resurrection fit into the Christian life today? _____

Loose change in today’s collection will go to the Shults-Lewis Children’s Home.

*Let us not mock God with metaphor, analogy, sidestepping, transcendence;
making of the event a parable, a sign painted in the faded credulity of earlier ages:
let us walk through the door.*

- John Updike, “Seven Stanzas at Easter”

Today, we celebrate resurrection! We pause, with laser-like attention, over the resurrection of Jesus to ponder its enduring significance and meaning. The resurrection demands to be taken with utmost seriousness. In fact, there is no Christianity (and no one can rightly be Christian) without its basis in fact and the acceptance thereof. Updike, in his Easter poem (which you should read—it’s not long), would have us accept the Gospel accounts as they appear and “walk through the door” of total conviction that Jesus is the Christ, the resurrected Son of God. To attempt any lesser belief in Jesus and Christianity, to try to embrace the man or message without the historical resurrection event, is only a “sidestepping” of Jesus’ true relevance. So, let’s “walk through the door” and celebrate that Christ is risen indeed!
