

Prayer List

Kathy Adamson, for recovery from rotator cuff surgery and relief of pain.

Jeff Baldwin, Jo Moreland's nephew, is scheduled for surgery in Indianapolis soon. Please pray for healing and comfort.

Mary Baldwin, Jo Moreland's sister, will be having surgery soon. Please pray for its success and for healing and comfort.

Patty Glaze, Debbie Nightingale's cousin, has been having episodes of passing out and is having tests on April 29 to find the cause. Please pray for peace for her and a good outcome for tests.

Larry Alsmann has a torn meniscus in his knee and will be scheduled for surgery soon.

Kevin Moore, who formerly attended Eastside and is now in prison, requests prayer for evangelism and fair sentencing.

Mike Houser, currently in prison, has recently converted to Christianity. Pray for his growth and maturity in Christ.

Aaron Hos, an acquaintance of Frank Jones and others, is currently in the hospital in an invalid state with no prognosis for improvement. Aaron was in a self-caused car wreck after a painful personal trial and is now likely to spend the rest of his life in a partial vegetative state. He has a wife and children.

Don Gamble, for successful resumption of treatment for lymphoma and for peace and comfort.

Kid's Ministry

In the hallway next to Josh's office is a sign-up sheet for the next two quarters of teachers for our Kid's Ministry. We need adults who want to share the love of Jesus with the next generation of teachers. Please sign up! Contact Josh for more information or with questions.

SENIOR SEEKERS

The Senior Seekers invite you to participate in Bible study and singing at 11 a.m. each Thursday and lunch at 12 noon.

All adults are welcome!

14th & Chestnut Community Center is looking for someone who can cook and prepare lunches for their summer interns from May 28 to May 31. If you are available and interested in helping, please see Matt for more information. We are a Serving Church!

Our Mission:

DEVELOP COMPLETELY COMMITTED FOLLOWERS

Be the Sermon Sunday 2019

Be the Sermon Sunday is an event that intends to send us into our community as a church for various acts of kindness, love, and generosity. Our target date, barring any serious obstacles, will be May 5. The day will look something like this: after worship, all participating church members will immediately divide into teams and head into our community with specific discipleship projects to complete. Here's the plan:

- Sign up on the posted sign-up sheets
- Wear "Be the Sermon" T-shirt and "work clothes" to the worship service on Be the Sermon Sunday
- At the conclusion of the worship service, we will break up into teams and each team will be given a discipleship project to complete (estimated time of completion: 1–2 hours)
- Participating team members will be given sack lunches to take with them.
- As the projects are completed, team members are free to go home.

Holy Wind

In a second century writing known as the Odes of Solomon, the author compares the way a harp sounds as wind blows through its strings and the way the Spirit sweetly influences our souls as He blows through the strings of our hearts.

"As the wind passes through the lyre and the strings speak, in the same way through my inward being sounds the Spirit of the Lord, and I speak in his love" (Odes of Solomon 6:1-2).

The word for "spirit" in both the Hebrew Old Testament and the Greek New Testament means wind, breath, and by extension, spirit. Its uses, however, are even richer than these. And this invites us to pause and consider the richness of the word for our understanding of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit has always been a bit of a mysterious figure for Christians. He is the God we don't know. We're familiar with fathers and sons, which allows us to relate to God on these terms more easily. But what is spirit? What does it look like, sound like, smell like, feel like? Clearly, spirit is a different category by which to understand God, but it's hard to know where to begin. In this new series, I propose we learn more of God the Spirit by meditating on the various images the Bible uses to describe Him to us. So, join me today as we see the Spirit as God's Holy Wind, a wind that promises to blow through our hearts and produce change that is purposed and directed by God.
