IGNITE

IGNITE will meet tonight at 5:00 p.m. There is a meal sign-up sheet in the hallway for IGNITE. We greatly appreciate everyone who provides the meals and for your interest in supporting the next generation.

There's no sermon today! Why? Because we are the sermon today. Of course, this is the ideal way for Christians to live their lives as Jesus followers. Instead of an overflow of words and "You should" and "You shouldn't," we should embody the Gospel in real-world ways all the time. This is why we do things like "Be the Sermon" Sunday. We want to give you, the Eastside family, an opportunity to live your faith. We want to remind you that we exist not just to believe, but to "be." We not only believe in Jesus, but we are called to "be" Jesus to our neighbors and communities. We are the body of Christ, that mass of people committed to Jesus and committed to continuing Jesus' ministry as He began it on earth.

So, "Be the Sermon" Sunday is one way that we do this. In our spiritual DNA (WRP+4), one way for us to be completely committed followers of Jesus is to Serve. If we are not serving, we are not completely committed followers of Jesus. Period. Granted, we recognize that, for various reasons, not everyone can participate in the events we have planned for today. You will choose to serve in other ways, and that's good. But for those who can participate, we want today's sermon to be us, a Church that's committed to serving our neighbors in the name of Jesus because we believe that Jesus has sacrificially served us in immeasurable ways.

Today, then, we are the sermon.

Loose change in today's collection will go to the Shults-Lewis Children's Home.

Welcome to Worship!

We're so glad you're here!

Make Me a Servant

Do you remember singing this hymn? "Make me a servant, Lord, make me like You; For You are a servant, make me one, too. Make me a servant, do what You must do; To make me a servant; make me like You."

In 1 Corinthians 14, Paul writes of singing both with his spirit and his mind. The old KJV puts it, "I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also" (1 Cor 14:15). If we are to follow Paul in his desire to sing with his entire being, then we must understand what we're singing when we sing "Make Me a Servant." We're actually asking the Lord to change our hearts, ambitions, and desires toward a service-oriented perspective. We're asking him to move us outside ourselves and into the lives of others. We're asking him to show us that the world of our interests and concerns is far bigger than ourselves. We're asking him to let us see the world through his eyes.

What happens when Jesus answers this prayer? What happens when the concepts of this hymn sink into our hearts? We serve. We reject Sunday-only Christianity. We reject a me-centered approach to Church and ministry. And, we become "doers of the word, and not hearers only" (Jas 1:22). So, that's what Be the Sermon Sunday is all about. And this is why we're going to worship God today not only in word, but in our deeds.

Guests: Please fill out a yellow attendance card and drop it in the collection plate.
