Jesus Loves the Little Children!

Because of the periodic need for the organization of meals for those who are ill or shut-in, Vicki Bauer has volunteered to head and organize this ministry. Make your giving easier! Give online or through our texting app. Last year, Eastside implemented online giving to make it easier and more convenient for you to give. You can sign up and download the free app at easytithethe.com. It's quick and simple. Or, go to our website at eastsidechurchofchrist.us, click the "Giving" tab, and follow the instructions. Then, you'll have the option of scheduling your giving at the frequency you desire or just giving a one-time "Quick Give." With these options, you don't have to worry about forgetting, scrambling for a check book during worship, or overlooking it while you're out of town on vacation. So, use it Eastside! It's a great option for contributing financially to the work we do as a church!

Friends, Family and Neighbor Day

Mark your calendars for June 23 for our next Friends, Family and Neighbor Day. We will have a carry-in immediately following the service (the meat will be supplied—please bring sides, desserts or drinks.) Be thinking about whom you can invite!

CAMP WABASHI

June 16 - 22 for ages 8 to 10
June 23 - 29 for ages 11 to 14
July 14 - 20 for ages 9 to 12

We have several students who are in need of financial assistance in order to attend Camp. We never want money to be the reason a student is not able to attend. If you are interested in providing one or more camperships, please see Josh or one of the Elders.

Our Mission:
DEVELOP COMPLETELY COMMITTED FOLLOWERS

Recognizing needs within our church, the Elders are asking the congregation to help them select and appoint new deacons to special roles of ministry. The categories of need are:

Interior Maintenance: someone to maintain the interior of the church building, which will include lighting, plumbing, heating and cooling, and general malfunctions of equipment. This person will not be expected to take care of every issue alone, but rather organize and ensure that such issues are satisfactorily resolved.

Worship: someone to organize and improve, with input from the leadership team, our worship services. The emphasis will be on Sunday morning worship but can also include Wednesday nights and other special occasions when Eastside will gather for worship and spiritual edification.

We are asking for suggestions from the church for men who can fill these roles with commitment and excellence. Please make your recommendations to one of our Elders.

IGNITE

June 9: No IGNITE (Senior Week at Camp)

June 16: No IGNITE (Father's Day)

Receiving “Psychological Trinkets” from Others

Christian counselor Ed Welch once noted, “No matter how much I try, God’s love in itself doesn’t quite deliver me from desiring psychological trinkets from others” (Running Scared, 182-183). He was talking about how to get past the need for another person’s approval. In other words, he was trying to focus on God’s love for him as a means of getting over his need to be loved, admired, and respected by others. But this wasn’t helping. What he found was what all of us find in some measure or another: In spite of our awareness of God’s love, we crave the love, admiration, and approval of other human beings. In some sense, we will always want the “psychological trinkets” that others give to us by their approval and respect.

This typically doesn’t create problems until our desire for recognition, affirmation, and approval leads us to significantly alter our behavior and refrain from doing things we should or actively do things we shouldn’t. The Bible refers to this tendency to drastically change our behavior on account of others’ opinions or importance as the “fear of man.” And we all have it to one degree or another. We all want someone’s approval. We all want someone important to notice us and think that we’re important. Sometimes, however, this fear goes too far and carries us too far with it. How, then, do we confront our fear of man, our tendency to drastically change plans and behaviors out of concern for what other people will think? That’s our focus today. Matt Carver

Guests: Please fill out a yellow attendance card and drop it in the collection plate.
