Dear Eastside Family,
Thank you for the wonderful going-away party, for all of your kind words and cards, and for all the help in cleaning and getting us out of our house. More importantly, thank you for your love and encouragement over the years. It has been a true pleasure worshipping with you, sharing our lives with you, and having you share your lives with us. If any of you ever come to Colorado Springs, you are welcome to stay with us. Our new address is 3285 Blackwood Place, Colorado Springs, CO 80920. We miss you, love you all dearly, and will continue to pray for you.
Love in Christ,
Phil and Rachel

Eastside Family,
Thank you for the baby shower! We are humbled and thankful to be a part of this generous family!
We love you!
Seth & Jessica Woodason ♥

Thank you everyone for all you did for me during my battle with Hodgkin Lymphoma. All the help I received during the months/weeks of chemo therapy and radiation was unbelievable. I am so grateful for all the ladies who brought food. I often did not feel like cooking. When I felt down and depressed someone would call or there would be three uplifting cards in the mail.
Most of all, thank you for all the prayers. Although I haven't had a final scan yet, I trust that it will show that I am cured.
Thanks also to Matt for his visits and thanks again to everyone for the Christian love extended to me.
Sincerely,
Norma Shaw

Our Mission:
DEVELOP COMPLETELY COMMITTED FOLLOWERS

Our Third Annual Back-to-School Carnival will take place on Saturday, July 20, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. That means we need your help to collect school supplies for our neighborhood kids! Here is the list of supplies that are needed: #2 pencils, 24 count crayon boxes, white glue, dry erase markers, tissues, scissors, Band-Aids, wide-ruled composition notebook, glue sticks, highlighters, wide-ruled spiral notebook, 2- pocket folder, 3-ring folders, washable markers, post-it notes, and pencil/school boxes. Last year, we had enough supplies to fill over 70 backpacks! Let's do it again! We'll also need volunteers to help pull this off for the neighborhood. A sign-up sheet is posted on the bulletin board to provide you an opportunity to serve. Thanks for all your help!

IGNITE

IGNITE will meet tonight at the church at 5:00 p.m. The swim party has been postponed.

There is a meal sign-up sheet in the hallway for IGNITE. We greatly appreciate everyone who provides the meals!

A Miserable Religion

Imagine what your marriage, or some other significant relationship, would be like if you only communicated through a list of likes and dislikes, or a list of what you wanted from your partner and didn't want. How intimate would that relationship be? And if you did everything on the list, what further obligations would you have? Could you overlook birthdays and anniversaries, or dispense with displays of affection, or neglect loyalty and faithfulness, so long as the list was done? Would you ever defend your lack of engagement with your partner by saying, "Well, I did the list. You can't ask anything else of me. In fact, I think you owe me now."

What you've just imagined is a ridiculous scenario, and we intuitively know this. We wouldn't dream of pursuing our deepest and most important relationships this way. And yet, many Christians think this is precisely God's design for the faith and practice of Christianity. God gives a list (even if somewhat scattered across the New Testament). We put it together, and then do it. At this point, God must keep loving us and "blessing" us, even if the blessing is only the assurance that we won't go to Hell if we die today.

What a miserable religion. And what a miserable relationship. In fact, although it might pass for religion, such an arrangement can't possibly pass for a relationship. And this awareness illuminates something that we're going to read in Hosea today: "For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice; the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings." Two thousand years ago, Jesus told some very religious people to go learn what that statement meant (twice, actually). So, that's what we're doing today. We're going to learn what this means. Matt Carver
