Our Mission:
DEVELOP COMPLETELY COMMITTED FOLLOWERS

Our Third Annual Back-to-School Carnival will take place on Saturday, July 20, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. That means we need your help to collect school supplies for our neighborhood kids! Here is the list of supplies that are needed: #2 pencils, 24 count crayon boxes, white glue, dry erase markers, tissues, scissors, Band-Aids, wide-ruled composition notebook, glue sticks, highlighters, wide-ruled spiral notebook, 2- pocket folder, 3-ring folders, washable markers, post-it notes, and pencil/school boxes. Last year, we had enough supplies to fill over 70 backpacks! Let's do it again! We'll also need volunteers to help pull this off for the neighborhood. A sign-up sheet is posted on the bulletin board to provide you an opportunity to serve. Thanks for all your help!

IGNITE

IGNITE will NOT meet tonight.

There is a meal sign-up sheet in the hallway for IGNITE. We greatly appreciate everyone who provides the meals!

Sermon Notes

God tells Hosea to marry a "wife of harlotries," or a promiscuous, prostitute-like woman. Why such a terrible command? _____

Has God ever used a painful situation in your life to reveal more of Himself to you? How? What did He reveal? _____

What's the difference between calling God "My husband" and "my lord (Baal)"? _____

What does the opening of Hosea tell you about sin, yourself, and the jealous love of God? _____

Loose change in today's collection will go to the Shults-Lewis Children's Home.

How to Be an Adulterer

Fault us moderns as you may, we like to keep things polite and cordial in public. Of course, I'm well aware of the toxic, vitriolic exchanges online in social media posts and the comments section on most webpages. But, in public, we try to keep things polite. And if someone breaks this social code, we take great offense.

We also try to maintain a similar relationship with God. We want to keep things mostly polite, calm, and cool. And we certainly want God to keep it that way with us. But sometimes, God just looks at us and says, "You whore." What?!? Yes. But He doesn't do it to be rude. He does it because He's hurt, and He wants you to know that the way you're living your life isn't right. Your choices are destructive. Your relationships are poisonous. Your treatment of others is heinous. Your priorities are upside down. Your hopes and faith are misplaced. And you're cheating on God. But you don't notice any of it. So, what needs to happen? How are you going to realize what you're doing?

You need someone to confront you with truth. You need someone to tell you that you're whoring your life away. In the book of Hosea, this is Israel's national condition. She's cheating on her husband, Yahweh, and whoring her life away. Hers is a textbook case of how to be an adulterer. So, the language in the opening to Hosea is heated, fierce, and anything but polite. But God takes the dialogue to this alarming, even offensive, level because of how completely committed He is to His people, His wife, Israel. When love is real, and passionate, and threatened, politeness is a luxury it can't afford. So, let's spend the next few weeks listening in as God attempts to win back His adulterous wife.
