All ladies are invited to join our Ladies Bible Study which resumes Tuesday, September 3, in the Conference Room at MCL Restaurant in Meadows Shopping Center. Fellowship and devotional will be 10:30 to 11:00 with lunch available for purchase at 11:00. Regular classes will follow on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month at the church building. We will be studying from "Paul, the Grace of God," by Casandra Martin. The books are only $5 each; we need to order them soon so as to pass them out at our first meeting. Please call Carol Goff (812-841-3862), or Linda Hilbert (812-870-5361) if you plan to attend and need a book.

We are going to be writing letters to men incarcerated in Michigan city prison. The letters are to encourage some men who are involved in a Bible study inside the facility. The goal is to encourage, lift up, mentor, disciple or even pray with (by letter), and to answer questions if necessary. Anyone interested please contact Frank by email (fgjones61@gmail.com), phone (812)-240-8135, or by finding him at the building on Sunday or Wednesday. If you have questions or concerns about the ministry, feel free to ask. Thank you!

If you are looking to clean out that closet, then this is the time to donate those items for the camp! We are taking children's clothing (but no adult clothes please.) We can use just about any home décor items, Christmas items, yard stuff and almost anything else that is useable. Please bring your donations to the church building up until August 25. We will store them in a classroom until the sale.

We will also need volunteers to help set up and take down the tables and to work the yard sale. "Many hands make light work!"

There may be corn to sell at that time, but we won't know until later.

Thanks to everyone who helps make Camp Wabashi a success!!

Welcome to Worship!

To Heal a Harlot

These days we are astute at healing many diseases that formerly took lives or left lifelong scars. But issues of the heart remain largely out of reach to modern medicine. Of course, we do prescribe countless pills for whatever we believe ails us on the inside, and many of these ailments are legitimate. But how do you heal harlotry? What prescription can remedy whoredom?

The answer the book of Hosea will provide today has caught on and been portrayed in a handful of movies and storylines. Richard Gere and Julia Roberts discovered it in Pretty Woman, and Mel Gibson found it in Payback when he says at the end, "If she'd stop hookin', I'd stop shootin' people." The remedy for hookin' harlotry is love. Love is the universal balm that can soothe the pain of the human heart. It transforms, revitalizes, refreshes, and restores. It changes people. And it can heal promiscuous patterns of infidelity.

But let's not oversimplify. As Hosea will tell us, re-dedicated love requires certain words. These words must be powerful, although they can be simple. They must be sincere, even if brief. They have to be reinforced with clear action, even if the first tries are faltering and clumsy. Love, words, and action--the Bible captures the breadth of these combined elements with words like faith, confession, repentance, and obedience.

Hosea has taught us that love heals, and God is a fire hydrant of love. But love achieves healing with words and action, with faith, repentance, confession, and obedience. And with a beautiful song, the book of Hosea comes to an end, and the Great Healer promises a spectacular healing. He heals harlots, and He'll heal you.

Guests: Please fill out a yellow attendance card and drop it in the collection plate.
